

THURSDAY NOTES PHOTO EDITION

October 6, 2016

Congratulations to Mrs. Butcher's class for winning the Southern Indiana Sumdog Math Contest! They competed against 59 other classes entered. Out of 729 students in Southern Indiana who participated in the contest, Maria Cardona Ruiz, Brady Howton, Julia Barrett, and Nicolle Bautista placed in the top ten students based on the number of questions answered correctly.

SHOUT OUT to Zayna and Zoya Ahmed in Mr. McIntyre's class for this great birthday treat they brought in.

Good job girls!

Students from Castle High School came to teach our first graders all about soil! They learned about the properties of soil and the importance of soil conservation. The first graders even received sunflower seeds to plant!

5 NES 4th grade students played in the "Play for Kate Wiffle Bash" on Sept. 10th

Team USA: Jenna Smith, Julia Barrett, Sophie Miller, Brooklyn Voegerl, and Allie Kleeman

Mrs. Winchester's students were given just 4 paper clips and were told not to touch Fred or the "life preserver". The goal was to get the life preserver on Fred so he did not drown. The focus and teamwork shown was amazing!

Mrs. Schnur's class wrapped up learning about apples with an Apple Taste Testing Day!
