This week's Character Counts recognition goes to Kennedy Kollker in Mrs. Cohen's class. Kennedy was nominated by Mrs. McKinney for always being respectful to our special needs students. Kennedy gives extra effort to be polite by holding doors, engaging in conversation, and showing interest in what each student is working on. Kennedy's character warms many hearts and puts smiles on NES students and teachers alike. NES is proud to give Kennedy the Character Counts wristband, bumper sticker, backpack key chain, and pencil for being the NES Character of the Week.
